

Learning to live as a Pilgrim-22

Blessed contrariness 1 Peter 3:8-12

Intro:

1. How do we express our freedom in fostering love and friendship in the church? 3:8
 - i. We are called to unity of mind 3:8
 - ii. We are called to have sympathy towards one another 3:8
 - iii. We are called to brotherly love 3:8
 - iv. We are called to be tender-hearted 3:8
 - v. We are called to a life of humility 3:8
 - vi. We are called to return blessing for curse 3:9-12

2. Our freedom expressed in godly virtues brings blessing 3:9-12

Conclusion Blessed contrariness opposes the values of an unsaved society and results in blessing...

Blessed contrariness opposes the values of an unsaved society...

For to this you were called...

1 Peter 3:9